Quotes is the default main widget. If your page does not contain the Quotes widget, then other widgets are just grouped according to the matched colour indicators.

Matching color indicators will link your widgets. In this example, the Quotes widget is the main widget and the Order Pad and Technical Chart have been linked to it. When a stock is selected on the Quotes widget, the Technical Chart will show the selected stock and the Order Pad will contain the selected stock details

You may search to view charts of other stocks, but since the Technical Chart is not the main widget here, the Quotes and Order Pad widget will not change to the selected stock from the Technical Chart Widget.
